My dear Anna

I enclose a strip of paper containing my visit to you, merely to show that Mr. Clemson's name is conspicuous, as Professor Clemson, I thought you had not seen it. I do not like being styled the venerable Mrs. Bachour.
The glass has come perfectly safe, let me know what it cost and I will send the money.
Do let me know if Mr. Clemson has received my letter contain-ing check on the New York bank for money returned.
I sent it immediately as I received his letter. - Edward

Noble I hope will be up tomorrow even in the case, to see if any thing can be done with Andrew as he has been paying all debts as they came in, without any authority, and I fear will not give his consent to Edwards settling the business languidly and if he does not we cannot act, as Edward says he will not unless I get Andrews consent. I have sent several messages to him that I wish to see him, but he does not come.
I will write you all about it after Edward comes. In Mr Blemsons letter written from Washington to me he said

$550 dollars I was to return to the bank I sent the check for that amount, and two days after he wrote again saying $550 dollars so he must not blame me if it is not right but pay the remainder and I will refund it to him.
I am disgusted with such doings, and have given up all hopes of getting one cent out of Grace.
I regret much not seeing Mary W Knight, and Laura Huxworth, say so to them. When I come on next summer I will go the rounds and see all my friends.

Judge, Mrs Putnam, and Katy, with little Johnny, left this morning in the cars on a visit to good Uncle

James, I think they are a risky, but they were determined to go, and I hope he will return with them, on their return the Judge & Mrs Putnam go back to Florida, and will probably take Johnny with them - They were very anxious Kate should return with them, but her mother has just been confined, and it is impossible to hire any one here so she will remain until the 1st of November - She will travel next Summer - I hope nothing will prevent Florida's coming in the fall.
 Love to all - Remembrance to Mr. Smith & Babbet -
 your devoted Mother
 Florida Calhoun -
